ORDER

This matter is before the court on petitioner's motions to vacate [DE#920, #938].

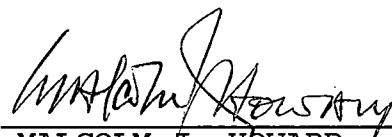

This action was initiated after the enactment and implementation of habeas corpus reforms contained in Title I of the "Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996." 28 U.S.C. § 2244 (b) (3) (A) provides that before a second or successive habeas corpus application may be filed in the district court, the applicant must move the appropriate court of appeals for an order authorizing the district court to consider the application. 28 U.S.C. § 2244 (b) (3) (A); see also 28 U.S.C. § 2255(h) (requiring successive motions to be certified by a panel of the appropriate court of appeals as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 2244).

The petitioner has filed at least one prior § 2255 claim; therefore this court is without jurisdiction to review the matter until authorized to do so by the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. Accordingly this matter is DISMISSED without prejudice for the petitioner to seek authorization to file this application in the Eastern District of North Carolina. The court notes petitioner has actually sought, and has been denied such authorization.

A certificate of appealability shall not issue absent "a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right." 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2) (2000). A petitioner satisfies this standard by demonstrating that reasonable jurists would find that an assessment of the constitutional claims is debatable and that any dispositive procedural ruling dismissing such claims is likewise debatable. Miller-El v. Cockrell, 537 U.S. 322, 336-38 (2003); Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000); Rose v. Lee, 252 F.3d 676, 683-84 (4th Cir. 2001). Reasonable jurists would not find this court's dismissal of Petitioner's § 2255 Motion as successive debatable. Therefore, a certificate of appealability is DENIED.

The clerk is directed to terminate the pending motions.
SO ORDERED, this 29th day of August, 2017.

MALCOLM J. HOWARD
SENIOR UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
